Virginia’s Trauma-Informed Community Networks

Charlotte Eure
VA TICNs Coordinator
Greater Richmond SCAN
31 trauma-informed community networks (TICNs) in various stages of development

- Website

- SCAN provides technical assistance and support
  - Convenes bi-monthly virtual meetings with network coordinators & state partners
8 Key Elements for Building a Trauma-Informed Community Network

- Greater Richmond TICN website
- 8 Key Elements for Building and Sustaining a TICN
- Trauma-Informed Health Systems Collaborative
- Leading With Lived Experience
- Creating a Shared Language of Resilience

Greater Richmond Trauma-Informed Community Network

Greater Richmond Trauma-Informed Health Systems Collaborative

Creating a Trauma-Informed Health Care System in Greater Richmond

Leading with Lived Experience
Tamika Daniel Creates Opportunities for Everyone to Thrive
Partnerships with state agencies and advocacy organizations (VA Dept of Health, VA Dept of Social Services, Voices for Virginia's Children)

- Funding for VA TICNs
  - VDH
  - VDSS Office of Trauma and Resiliency Policy
    - Creating Healing-Centered Organizations

- Lift Up Virginia
- Resilience Week Virginia
  - Loudoun County TICN and Southside TICN

Community Meet Up: Morning in the Garden

PART TWO
Pleasants Lane Elementary School, 100 Pleasants Lane, Petersburg, Virginia 23803.

10 am, Saturday, May 6

Meet us in the garden for an information session around restoration, installing a rainmaker, and a children’s literacy walk as we kick off Resilience Week in Virginia. Bring a garden tool and woodworking tools, and saws. Email: amanda.lynch@vdh.virginia.gov.
Led efforts to require trauma-informed courses for university-level K-12 teaching programs

Participated in and led multiple summits throughout the state, including the ○ 2019 Virginia Summit on Childhood Trauma & Resilience with a keynote address from Dr. Nadine Burke Harris;
  ○ 2019 Beyond ACES: Impact of Race, Culture, and Poverty Summit led by Virginia Department of Health;
  ○ and 2022 and 2023 Building Resilient Communities conferences

Participated in First Lady Pamela Northam's Road to Resilience Tour in 2021

Advocated for racism to be declared a public health crisis
Thank you!

ceure@grscan.com
grscan.com/va-ticsn